

Name: _____

Date: _____

World Humanities and World Literature and Analysis

Siddhartha by Hermann Hesse

From page 87 to page 115 (Part III)

For this portion of your reading, you will reflect on the controlling idea of each of the three stories in Zen Shorts by Jon J. Muth (“Uncle Ry and the Moon,” “The Farmer’s Luck” and “A Heavy Load”) and consider how one of the lessons can be related to this phase of Siddhartha’s journey.

Use the chart provided to reflect upon what lesson was learned. Then, consider the learning (or lack of learning) Siddhartha experienced in this phase of his journey.

Your reflection should be reflective and must contain specific textual evidence to both the “short” and the novel to support your claim. This response should be approximately 1 1/2-2 pages in length, 1.5 spaced, and contain the proper MLA heading.

This assignment must be uploaded to Turnitin by Friday, January 13th.